As soon as the weather moderates there will be a move to extend the street railroad to Collier's line, on the Northeastern road, and one-fourth mile from the center of the city. This will be an extension of the street railroad one mile beyond the "Ponce de Leon" circle. This is an improvement which will add greatly to the part of the city to be benefited.

Owing to the exceedingly inclement weather last night, the entertainment of Diamond Council No. 1, K. of P., was postponed to to-day. A goodly number were on hand, and these were favored with selections by Gallimore's orchestra and a few songs and recitations. Those holding tickets for last night's entertainment will be entitled to seats next Tuesday night.

AN INSANE YOUNG LADY.

A fourteen year old young lady tried on a writ of Lunacy.

Yesterday Ordinary Calhoun and a jury made an investigation into the state of mind of a young girl aged fourteen, named Lou B. Calhoun. The girl was brought to the court by her father, who is a well known citizen, and has been of unsound mind ever since, and seems to make no improvement. She rather gets worse as she grows older. The jury found that she was of unsound mind, and that she was a danger to herself and others. She was committed to the asylum for the insane.

WILL ST. JOHN COME?

The Temperance People Meet and Discuss the Coming of Kansas's Ex Governor.

For several days past the temperance people of Atlanta, have been quietly discussing among themselves, the advisability of inducing ex-Governor St. John, of Kansas, to visit this city while on his tour.

Yesterday the leading temperance workers, pursuant to a call, met at 63 1/2 Whitehall street to consider the question. The meeting effected an organization by electing Mr. H. M. Sessions chairman and Miss M. H. Stokes secretary. Letters from national prohibition executive committee at Pittsburgh, Pa., stating when Governor St. John could come to Atlanta and the conditions upon which he would come were read. A resolution asserting that the meeting heartily favored extending an invitation to Governor St. John to address the people of this city was adopted. The same resolution also requested the Fulton county prohibition executive committee to meet last night and to extend the invitation, and to arrange for the lecture. The executive committee was notified yesterday afternoon of the action of the meeting, and met, but adjourned to meet again to night, when the committee will arrange the details. It is understood that the governor will be asked to speak in Atlanta about the 19th or 20th of next month. The contents of the letters from the national prohibition executive committee, which have been given to the public, but it is an open secret that that committee asks for a guarantee of twenty-five dollars from each city wanting St. John to lecture. The Atlanta temperance people want the lecture to be free to all. That would necessitate the raising of near a hundred dollars to cover all expenses.

MR. GREEN T. DODD'S MARRIAGE.

He is United in Marriage to Miss Henrie Chapman, of Dooley County.

Yesterday morning Mr. Green T. Dodd, of the firm of P. & G. T. Dodd, was united in marriage to Miss Henrie Chapman, of Dooley county, Georgia. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride accompanied by Rev. T. B. Kendall, of Trinity church. Mr. Dodd and Mr. Kendall arrived at Montgomery, Ala., last night. They will spend a season in the home of the bride, and will return to Atlanta about the 1st of next month. The bride is a daughter of Mr. W. W. Chapman, formerly of the firm of Chapman, Rucker & Co., of this city, and a sister of Mr. J. J. Chapman, second assistant bookkeeper at the mint. P. & G. T. Dodd. She has many friends not only in Atlanta but everywhere. She will find in her new home a most pleasant and comfortable one. The bride and groom have hosts of friends who wish them long lives and much happiness.

TOM COLLIER CLOSED UP.

Deputy Sheriff Green Closes the Saloon Doors—Ladies and Gentlemen Unknown.

Tom Collier's saloon, on Marietta street, at the corner of Thurmond, was closed yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Green.

The saloon was closed because of the foreclosure of a mortgage, held by Mr. F. M. Potts, a wholesale liquor dealer, on Alabama street. It is reported that Mr. Collier was indebted to Mr. Potts in the sum of about $200. The debt was evidenced by notes and a mortgage on Mr. Collier's stock. The notes were paid, and yesterday Mr. Potts decided to close in on Mr. Collier. Deputy Sheriff Green visited the place in the afternoon and came away with the keys. Mr. Collier is indebted to Mr. Potts between $200 and $1,000. He owes Hall & Son a tobacco bill of about $100, and has other outstanding obligations. His liabilities are roughly estimated at $2,000, with assets equal to $2,500 to $3,000. He has been in business at his present stand for about a year and was thought to be doing a thriving trade. A Constabulary reporter made an attempt to enter Mr. Collier's saloon yesterday, but was without success. Mr. Potts says that he was compelled to close in on Mr. Collier in the face of the law. He says that Collier has given his business no personal attention for nearly two months, and that the result was obliged to be a failure.

LONGSTREET'S ACCOUNTS.

The Papers Forwarded to Washington that Close Up the General's Accounts.

Last night the last of the record of the doings of General James Longstreet, as United States marshal, was signed up by the clerk forwarded to Washington for filing in the department of the comptroller. These papers have reference to the executions that have been in the marshal's hands and have been prepared by the clerk of the Longstreet court. The comptroller requires that the marshal, before final settlement of his accounts, shall forward the certificate of the clerk that all papers issued have been properly returned and all moneys accounted for. As is well known General Longstreet and the department at Washington have never yet settled their accounts. The papers will go to Washington for a settlement under the present administration, but will trust his interests with the department. General Longstreet maintains that there is due him the gross amount of $20,000 or perhaps a little more. Only about eighteen or nineteen hundred of this, however, belongs to the general. The balance being due him by the deputy marshals. It is thought of these accounts aggregating $20,000 about $6,000 will be disallowed, and that the deputy marshals will receive their accounts less that amount. It is not known what will be done with the accounts of Crawford and Robinson, who were arrested, charged with drunkenness. Crawford ran away and Robinson was convicted. The accounts of both have been held up.

FOUND DEAD.

Nathan Small, a Patient in the Ivy Street Hospital, Dies Suddenly.

Nathan Small, the man who was found dead in his room at the Ivy street hospital, was buried yesterday in West View cemetery yesterday.

Small came to Atlanta about six months ago and made his home at A. P. Rollins's boarding house on Peter street. He was then in good health, and had enough money to pay his board bill as it fell due. He was quiet gentlemanly in his manners and talked only when asked questions. During his sojourn at Mr. Rollins's he stated that he came to Atlanta from Roanoke, Virginia, but said that his home was in Illinois, and that he had a brother, John Small, living at Maryland postoffice, Old county, Illinois. About two weeks ago he was taken sick, and in obedience to his commands, Rollins called to see him several times during his illness and repeatedly asked the sick man to notify his brother, but each request was refused. Mr. Small declaring that he was not much sick, and that he would soon be well again. He was given the best possible attention, and Monday morning he appeared better, but that evening while alone in his room he died. Some time after his death a nurse entered the room and found the body cold. No inquest was deemed necessary. He left a small amount of money. His brother has been notified of the death. The remains were buried by Patterson & Bowden, the undertakers.

Manhood Restored

RELIEF AT LAST!

Dr. J. BRADFIELD.

Dear Sir: I was informed by a friend of some of the miraculous cures that your Bradfield's Female Regulator had performed and persuaded to buy a bottle and it has helped me so much, and I feel so greatly improved every way that I shall keep up its use until fully restored, which I am sure will not be long off. I have been an invalid for the past four months and during the time have been treated by three physicians, and I can truthfully say your Regulator has done more good than all the medicine I have ever taken combined. I only write this to let you know how much good your great Female Remedy has done me, and I expect to tell all other suffering women to use it for it is "OUR BEST FRIEND," and does all you claim for it. Respectfully yours,
S. F. BURDSON.

Concerning a Crank.

From the Philadelphia Times.

Gorsch, a Chicago social crank, was rather taken slack at Pittsburgh the other day when a workman asked him what he proposed to substitute for private property when he destroyed it. He replied first with ridicule, then with profanity, and, finding neither would silence the working property interest and then he decided what will be the best system for all people. The workman, whose question is as old as the days of the great question maker, Socrates, probably thought himself of how he used to trade jackknives, "crank music," when a schoolboy and how invariably he got left on the job.

Mr. Bonner lives in Macon and no one is better known than he. Strangers can rely upon the statement he makes:

In August, 1881, it was discovered that my son's wife was in the last stages of consumption. She was coughing incessantly, and times would discharge quantities of pus from her lungs, could not sleep or retain anything on her stomach, and we thought it only a question of time when life would be compelled to give way to the fell destroyer. After all other remedies failed, we got

Brewer's Lung Restorer

And began it in very small doses, as she was very weak. She soon began to improve; continued the remedy and was restored to life and health, and is to-day better than she has ever been before. I regard her restoration as nearly a miracle, for which she is indebted to BREWER'S LUNG RESTORER.
